

PROGRAMME

Bringing the Euro back into the light : Capital Markets Union and the International Role of the Euro

Thursday 9 July 2015

16, avenue Matignon, 75008 Paris
(Salons de la Galerie)

8h45 - 9h00 Registration and Welcome coffee

9h00 - 10h15 Session 1 – Capital Market Union

Chair: Sébastien Jean, Director of the CEPII

- Speakers
- Nicolas Véron, Senior Fellow at Bruegel and Visiting Fellow at the Peterson Institute for International Economics
 - Natacha Valla, Deputy Director, CEPII

Materials

Capital Markets Union: a vision for the long term, Bruegel Policy Contribution, April 2015
A holistic approach to ECB asset purchases, the Investment Plan and CMU, CEPII Policy Brief, April 2015

10h15 - 10h45 Coffee Break

10h45 - 12h00 Session 2 – The International Role of the Euro

Chair: Pierre-Olivier Beffy, Chief Economist, Exane BNP Paribas

- Speakers
- Johannes Graeb, European Central Bank
 - Michel Aglietta, Advisor at the CEPII, Professor Emeritus at Paris X University and Member of the Council for French Public Finances

Materials

“The international role of the euro”, ECB Forthcoming Report (8 July)
“Currency Turmoil in an Unbalanced World Economy”, CEPII Forthcoming Policy Brief

This meeting is kindly hosted by Exane BNP Paribas