

BIOGRAPHY

---

Romain DUVAL

Advisor to the Chief Economist in the IMF Research Department

Romain Duval is Advisor to the Chief Economist in the IMF Research Department, where he also leads the Structural Reforms Unit. Previously he was the Division Chief for Regional Studies of the IMF Asia Pacific Department and led the Regional Economic Outlook. Prior to joining the Fund, he was the Division Chief for Structural Policies Surveillance at the OECD Economics Department, where he was also the editor of the flagship publication Going for Growth. He has published extensively in leading academic and policy-oriented journals on a wide range of topics including the economics and political economy of labor and product market regulations, growth, productivity, trade, monetary policy, equilibrium real exchange rates, and climate change economics. Over the years his research has also been profiled multiple times in leading global newspapers and magazines such as The Economist, Financial Times, Wall Street Journal or Bloomberg. He holds a PhD in Economics from University Paris-I-Sorbonne.

Contact details: rduval@imf.org

Research page: <https://ideas.repec.org/e/pdu64.html>